

Methodology

Compendium structure

part 01

UNDERSTANDING PPPS TO PREVENT & COUNTER TRAFFICKING IN PERSONS

- The interplay between the private sector and human trafficking.
- An introduction to PPPs.

- Maximising PPP Success and Overcoming Challenges
- Engaging with one another.

part 2

PPPs and Supply Chains

- Comprehensive approach.
- Interdisciplinarity
- Local Partners

- Data Collection
- Procurement, subcontracting and recruitment.
- Communication

part 3

PPPs AND THE FINANCIAL SECTOR

- Support from the top.
 - The role of law.
 - Knowledge development through typologies and training within financial PPPs.
-
- The use of technology within financial PPPs.
 - Monitoring, evaluation and feedback.
 - Privacy and human rights risks.

part 4

PPPS AND THE TECHNOLOGY SECTOR

- Taking a victim-oriented approach in tech development.
- Data ethics.
- Innovation.

UNODC'S ROLE IN PPPS

Convenor

Facilitator

Secure contact point

What's On database

Connector

Conclusions

More information exchange between sectors and within regions.

Collaboration between public and private sectors often hindered by privacy and security issues.

Urgent need for victim protection-oriented PPPs.

UNODC a key player in facilitating PPPs.

UNODC Civil Society Unit (CSU) & Human Trafficking and Migrant Smuggling Section (HTMSS)

CSU

unodc-se4u@un.org and

unodc-ngounit@un.org

HTMSS

unodchtmss@un.org

UNODC

United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime

