

Grant receiving civil society organizations and their programmes:

1. Anti-Corruption Solidarity Alliance (Kulu village, Aceh province) - Strengthening people participation in corruption eradication as an effort to actualize good governance in local government in Bireuen District, Aceh Province
2. Advocacy Center for People's Right to Education (Medan, North Sumatera province) - Strengthening community participation in education budget
3. Regional Leadership Institute for Research and Development of Nahdlatul Ulama Human Resources (Medan, North Sumatera province) - Creating honest generation: School and canteen of honesty
4. Forum for Environment (Jakarta, DKI Jakarta province) – Research on participatory action to eradicate corruption in the field of environment in South Kalimantan
5. Titian Institute (Pontianak, West Kalimantan province) - Diagnosis on local woods demand in an effort to eradicate illegal logging and corruption in West Kalimantan
6. Bina Nusantara University (Jakarta, DKI Jakarta province) - Promoting anti-corruption activities to the public: raising the idea of cross-media creative
7. Indonesian Transparency Society (Jakarta, DKI Jakarta province) - Anti-corruption youth camp 2011: Students go anti-corruption
8. RACA Institute (Jakarta, DKI Jakarta province) - Anti-corruption education to the community of farmers and workers through the establishment of informal anti-corruption teachers
9. Committee of Investigation and Combating of Corruption, Collusion and Nepotism Foundation of Central Java (Semarang, Central Java province) - Survey of health services for poor people through a method of citizen report cards in the city of Semarang, Central Java province
10. Information and Data Center for Anti-Corruption Foundation (Jogjakarta, DIY Jogjakarta province) – Citizen Journalism education on anti-corruption through media
11. Society of Independent Villages (Nganjuk, East Java province)- Increasing anti-corruption awareness among the Mosque community in the district Nganjuk
12. Institute of Law Studies and Human Rights Advocacy of Central Sulawesi (Palu, Central Sulawesi province) - Pressing corruption through transparency in public service institutions in education and health in the Donggala district
13. Makassar Legal Aid Institute (Makassar, South Sulawesi province) - Promoting the rule of law and good governance in the handling of corruption cases in South Sulawesi

14. Kendari Legal Aid Institute (Kendari, South East Sulawesi province) - Monitoring the prevention of corruption in the judiciary through legal empowerment in society

15. Papua Legal Aid Institute (Jayapura, Papua province) - Building community capacity to control local budgets and the eradication of corruption